

Conference Objective

With China's rapid emergence as a global power, its diplomacy has been facing brand new challenges as well as opportunities. Consequently its grand strategy and foreign policy ideas and practice have also been evolving. This international conference will explore China's emerging new grand strategy and related diplomatic transformation from both theoretical and policy perspectives. A group of leading Chinese and American scholars will get together at University of Macau to discuss various aspects of China's new directions in foreign policy and their implications for China's relations with the world.

Conference Themes

1. China's Grand Strategy Revisited
2. China's Military and Economic Strategies
3. China's Great Power Strategy
4. China's Soft Power Strategy
