

U.S.-China Relations and Korean Peninsula

Language: English
Date: 22nd November 2013
Time: 15:00-16:30
Venue: HG01

This lecture will discuss the influence of the changing US-China Relations on the Korean Peninsula. How the rebalancing strategy of the US and the strategy of a new type of great power relationship of China unfold would greatly impact on the security architecture in Northeast Asia in general and on the Korean Peninsula in particular.

Speaker: Prof. Lee Tai Hwan

Director of the Center for China Studies, and AreaStudies Program, Sejong Institute. He is president of Korea-China ThinkNet which is an association for networking between Korean and Chinese experts in major think tanks and helping public diplomacy. He is a member of Standing Committee of National Unification Advisory Council in Korea.

澳門大學
UNIVERSIDADE DE MACAU
UNIVERSITY OF MACAU

Department of Government and Public Administration, FSS
Youth Association of International Affairs, UMPA